

Chironomidae Taxonomist
EcoAnalysts, Inc., Moscow, Idaho
www.ecoanalysts.com

EcoAnalysts is currently searching for an individual who enjoys taxonomy and who wants to be part of a successful team of Aquatic Scientists. If you wish to use your knowledge and experience to help people make highly informed decisions regarding the condition and stewardship of our natural resources, then we encourage you to explore the information below and throughout our entire web site at www.ecoanalysts.com.

Position

We are currently seeking qualified applicants for one full-time position in Chironomidae taxonomy. Primary duties involve identification of samples.

Location

Moscow, ID.

Qualifications

The major responsibility of the Chironomidae Taxonomist is the identification of aquatic macroinvertebrates to genus/species level. We work in a production environment where accuracy is critical and speed is imperative. The majority of our projects come from around North America, so the successful candidate will be required to learn and become familiar with a diverse range of taxa. During an initial training period, the Chironomidae Taxonomist will be working under the wing of a highly experienced Senior Taxonomist. After the training period, the Chironomidae Taxonomist will also be responsible for executing our rigorous quality control tasks.

Minimum qualifications are a Master's degree in the biological sciences and demonstrated experience in identifying macroinvertebrates. Preference will be given to applicants with at least two years of identification experience in a production taxonomy setting.

Compensation

Salary and benefits are dependent upon experience and qualifications. Benefits include: flex time, vacation/sick time, health insurance (medical, vision, and dental) and an employer-matched investment fund.

Application

Please send or email 1) letter of application, 2) complete resume, and 3) three professional references. No phone calls please.

Position will close May 1, 2012

Anticipated start date

Negotiable.
