ECOANALYSTS, INC. HIRES MIKE GLENNON AS DIRECTOR OF CANADIAN BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

MOSCOW, ID -- EcoAnalysts, Inc. is proud to announce Mike Glennon as its new director of Canadian business development.

Glennon comes to EcoAnalysts with more than 25 years of business expertise in the oil, gas and mining industries, where he has held senior level positions with multiple fortune 500 companies.

He has been involved in several multi-billion dollar projects and contributed to the groundbreaking development of Canada's first diamond mine. In 2006, Glennon was named one of the 12 most influential people in the Alberta Oil Industry by Canada's National Post.

"Glennon comes to us with a significant skill set in business operations and a strong network of connections in the mining, oil and gas industries in western Canada," Gary Lester, EcoAnalysts' CEO, said.

As part of EcoAnalysts' business development team, Glennon will help to generate business throughout Canada and work to grow global relationships and revenues.

"I expect to see a significant increase in new business relationships as he leverages his network and helps us take one step closer to our goal in becoming the leading provider of taxonomy services in Canada," Lester said.

Glennon holds an MBA from Queen's University and has completed postgraduate studies in global leadership and international business.
